-- DESCRIPTION SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION..--

Please replace the paragraph on page 3, beginning at line 24, with the following replacement paragraph:

--~~The object is achieved by all the features of Claim 1.~~ The A core of the invention consists in arranging the rotation-prevention means in the central part of the sleeve mount and in restricting them to the central part of the sleeve mount. This ensures that the sleeve is only obstructed from rotating about the sleeve axis, but can otherwise be tilted, for the most part, in all directions about a central point and can thus be optimally adapted to the plugged-in plug-in connectors. --

Please delete the paragraph on page 5, beginning at line 20.

Please replace the section heading on page 5, at line 23 with the following replacement section heading:
